tant District Attorney Edward S. Bro-gan, in charge of the investigation, has subpænaed them for to-morrow.

R. P. Reasor, assistant treasurer of the Standard Oil Company, entered a specific complaint to the Federal Re-serve Board, caarging that a certain pawnbroker had paid $6 to one of his messenger boys for his interest in a $50 bond, on which the boy had paid specific complaint to the Federal Reserve Board, charrying that a certain pawnbroker had paid $6 to one of his messenger boys for his interest in a $50 bond, on which the boy had paid $15 on account.

Mr. Brogan said it was imperative that something be done to protect the small investors from the loan sharks. He said a movement was already on mittee and the Federal Reserve Board to devise some plan to do this.

Mr. Brogan also said he had received complaints that war savings stamps are being sold in the financial district at less than their face value. This, he said, was in violation of the law, and an investigation would soon be made.

The Federal Reserve Board has also complained that $300,000 worth of Liberty bonds have been stolen by an organized band of conspirators in the financial district in the last three months. Messenger boys with bonds to deliver, it is alleged, are conspirators and they notify members of the bands where bonds are to be delivered.

10,000 to Sing for War Saving Stamps At Great Polo Grounds Festival

of combined New York City choral societies, and solos by grand opera stars, will be features of the day.

Lieutenant John Philip Sousa, supported by a naval band of 200 pieces, will act as musical director. High school and college student singing societies will take part in the festival.

The New York Baseball Club, through its president, Harry N. Hempstead, has granted the use of the Polo Grounds to the New York War Savings Committee for the festival.

The various choral societies scheduled to take part in the festival have started rehearing and classes are being arranged for the unattached singers. Dr. Frank Rix, director of music in the public schools, is in charge of organizing the student choruses. He is being assisted by George H. Gartland, All singers who wish to volunteer for the festival are urged to communicate with Theodore Bauer, vice-chairman, in charge of the programme, at 102 West Thirty-eighth street.

Captain Charles B. Dillingham is chairman of the committee on arrangements. The other members include Mark A. Luescher, Earl R. Lewis, Joseph I. Bernat, Edward L. Bernays, R. H. Burnside, Edwin G. Clark, Giulio Gatti-Casazza, Walter Damrosch, Daniel Frohman, H. O. Osgood, Edward Ziegler and William G. Stewart.
